INTERNATIONAL PRELIMINARY REPORT ON PATENTABILITY

International application No.

PCT/JP03/16912

Box No. V Reasoned statement under Article 35(2) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. Statement

Novelty (N)	Claims	1-3, 5-12	YES
	Claim	4	NO
Inventive step (IS)	Claims	1-3, 5-12	YES
	Claim	4	NO
Industrial applicability (IA)	Claims	1-3, 5-12	YES
	Claim	4	NO

2. Citations and explanations (Rule 70.7)

Document 1) Journal of Biological Chemistry (1983), 258(3), 1885-7
Document 2) Journal of Biological Chemistry (1982), 257(15), 8755-60

Based on the description in document 2 cited in the international search report, the invention of claim 4 lacks novelty. Page 8755 of document 2 describes a compound wherein one fucose is linked to the N-acetylglucosamine in the branches of the aforementioned three-branched sugar chain asparagine, and as the applicant has also acknowledged in a written reply, this corresponds to the three-branched sugar chain asparagine of claim 4. In the written reply the applicant asserts that the aforementioned compound described in document 2 is a mixture containing other three-branched asparagines, and therefore the invention of claim 4 is novel and involves an inventive step. However, because the above compound is recognized and described as a single compound in document 2, the original decision that the invention of claim 4 lacks novelty remains unaffected even though the compound is present in a mixture with other compounds.

Documents 1 and 2 neither describe nor suggest the inventions of claims 1-3 and 5-12, and therefore these inventions are novel and involve an inventive step.
